Donor # 4029
Interview Notes

Donor #4029 is comfortable and relaxed in his demeanor. He laughs easily and has a boyish smile; he likes to crack corny jokes. He strikes me as a sweet, genuine southern boy. This donor has all-American good looks with bright blue eyes and a keen gaze. He is built like a wrestler, strong and athletic without being bulky. He is tall and has a solid, cut physique but is not a large guy.

I have no doubt when talking with donor 4029 that his health history is extremely accurate. He is very close with his family and has a knack for remembering facts and details. He has a strong interest in family history and can trace his lineage back to the 11th Century.

As with many people, donor 4029 explained that within his family acne often appeared at the on-set of puberty and subsided later in life with minimal scarring. The detail with which he reported this common health problem is indicative of his thoroughness.

Donor 4029 is very passionate about his job as a theatre technician. He originally went to school to study acting but tried technical work and realized that he enjoyed it immensely. He feels lucky to have found a job he loves so young in life. Throughout our meeting, I was struck by how together and on top of his life this donor is at age 27. He knows what he is passionate about and has a strong work ethic when it comes to accomplishing his goals.

This donor is currently studying Kung Fu and has advanced rapidly. He says this is because once he is taught something new he practices until he gets it. He stays after his lessons in order to practice until the movement has been committed to memory. This diligence and dedication is reflected in many areas of his life.

Overall I was impressed with this donor's thoughtfulness and ability to express himself. His is articulate and has no problem expressing his intellectual and emotional sides. This donor is clean-cut yet exceptionally sweet looking and handsome. I think he will make a great Identity Release donor. His knowledge of his family history is extensive and he is so thoughtful and caring in his life choices that I think he would be a wonderful person to meet later in life.
