DONOR NARRATIVE: Donor # 4115

Describe your personality (introvert, extrovert, funny, serious, goal-oriented, curious, etc.).

I am very positive and optimistic about everything- school, career, or personal. I am also a very curious individual, and that drives me into liking science. I am mostly an introvert, and I like to keep things to myself. I only have a few selected friends that I feel completely comfortable with. I usually take things lightly unless when it is about school or my career when I get very serious. I am compassionate and would lend out that helping hand whenever necessary.

What are your special interests and talents?

I enjoy studying the stock market and the financial sector. It's my non-athletic hobby. I am a chemist/biologist and I would love to talk about science with just about anybody. I also like to play card games with my friends that involve strategy.

How would you describe your enjoyment of and skills in the following areas:

math: I wouldn't say I enjoy it, but I am pretty good at estimating/approximating when comparing prices when I shop.

mechanical: Not very good at all.

athletic: I love playing tennis and basketball. Not at "varsity" level.

musical, artistic, creative: I played the clarinet in high school and haven't played since. I would say art and music aren't my strong suite.

language (what languages do you speak?): Mandarin. Spanish.

What are your goals and ambitions in life?

I hope to work for a pharmaceutical company after getting my degree, specifically targeting "neglected diseases" to help the medical environment in third world countries.

Why do you want to be a sperm donor?

My aunt, who has endometriosis, cannot be pregnant, and I know a lot of lesbian couples who want to have babies. I witnessed my aunt's joy when she adopted a baby girl 14 years ago, and I just hope I can do the same for others.

Did you choose to be an identity-release donor? X Yes. Why did you make this choice?

I'd like to give my offspring a better idea of who they are if they are ever curious, or answering any lingering questions.

What message would you like us to pass on to the people who are getting your sperm?

I consider myself pretty fortunate that none of my family members have suffered from cancer or other genetic ailments. I don't drink or smoke, and have a pretty healthy life style.
