Donor 3591
Interview Notes

Donor 3591 is tall and slender with silky, light brown hair that falls across his forehead. He has fine features, creamy skin and friendly brown eyes. We had a pleasant conversation, he was very attentive and offered thoughtful responses to my questions. He described himself as a “laid back person, who likes being active, and is reasonably mature.” His regular participation in hapkido, a Korean martial art, and rowing is evident in his toned physique and limber musculature.

Donor 3591 is pursuing a degree in kinesiology and sees himself becoming a naturopathic doctor or physical therapist. He shares his interests in health with his family, his grandmother was once a nurse, and his grandfather was once an EMT, and his mother is an occupational therapist.

Donor 3591 has many interests. He talked about the many renaissance fairs he has been participating in since he was a small child. His mother, sister and he are a part of several guilds, specifically guilds that pertain to blacksmithing, carpentry, quilting, spinning, herbs, and instrument construction. He is most interested in the blacksmithing, and herbalism.
